Oh what a night! Fun and $45,000 raised

Over 250 people enjoyed an incredible night at Ivy for the inaugural Interplast Black & White Ball. Pre dinner drinks were served over three levels before guests entered the Ivy room featuring striking zebra print carpet, beautiful floor to ceiling white curtains with stunning black detail and six huge white chandeliers. The room was made complete with a black and white dance floor and life size inflatable zebra known as Zeb — just for a bit of fun. Mouths were agape at the sight of the room, with the entry made all the more special with the sound of big band live music by Superstitious.

Wendy Harmer opened the evening with her usual flair setting the tone for a fun night ahead for a great cause. Guests had gone to great efforts to look extra special on the night in their finest black and white couture.

Delicious meals excited the tastebuds while the raffle and auction prizes excited the guests, with bidding for some items quite competitive. After the live auction everyone got up to dance to the fantastic sing a long tunes of the 10 piece band Superstitious, with dancers spilling over the dance floor. Zeb didn't miss out on the fun — ending the night crowd surfing!

Phone calls and emails have been filtering through the Interplast office all week from people saying they had a great night and have already got a table of friends together for the next one!

Importantly many new people had the opportunity to hear of the incredible, often unsung, achievements of Interplast volunteers.

The most outstanding news of the night is that nearly $45,000 was raised through the inspiring generosity of so many people and businesses. This money will be used for Interplast volunteers from Australia and New Zealand to continue to repair bodies and rebuild lives in the Asia Pacific region.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, volunteers and most importantly the patients of Interplast — thank you.

Great deals continue for you and Interplast

Generously, the following organisations have agreed that purchases made before the end of April 2009, will donate proceeds to Interplast.

HAPPY MEDIUM PHOTOGRAPHY

Photos taken on the night can be viewed on line at happymediumphoto.com.au/eshop then click 'Charity/Dinner/Balls' and then '2009-03-28-IVY-Ball'. Photos can be purchased for $13.20, with proceeds going to Interplast.

ZEIGLER & KRAUS WINE

Stuart Ziegler and Richard Kraus search for small parcels of fine wines each year to blend and bottle, and the 2004 Shiraz from Orange is one of the best in recent memory. The high altitude and cool climate gives the Shiraz a typically Rhone style —white pepper, plum, chocolate and warm leather. This complex and delicious wine is underpinned with soft tannins and excellent drinking now.

The grapes from the limited release 2008 Sauvignon

Blanc were perfectly harvested which has resulted in a wine with great finesse, a long crisp palate with delicious lime, kiwi and gooseberry flavours to be enjoyed with seafood, salads and light meals.

Wines are $240 a dozen (incl delivery in NSW). Please complete the order form attached, fax it, and one third of the price of the orders will go to Interplast.
