Black & White
Ball

Interplast Australia & New Zealand Fundraiser

There are now only two weeks to go and still a few tables left for the Interplast Black and White Ball on the 20th of March 2010 at Ivy. Tickets will be on sale until sold out at $260 per person or $2,200 for a table of ten.

The 2010 Black and White Fundraising Ball is a memorable evening at a spectacular venue with fine food, fine wine, the finest black and white couture and toe tapping entertainment from 10 piece band Superstitious. Importantly it will raise funds to enable Interplast volunteers to continue to 'repair bodies and rebuild lives'.

Many wonderful items have been donated to auction on the evening so come prepared to win your next overseas holiday, luxurious weekend away, great wine, beautiful artwork, fabulous handbag or bid on some money-can't-buy items. Some of the items available on the night include ...

Tintilla Estate 2005 Reserve Shiraz

Tintilla Estate is passionate about producing distinctive, estate grown, hand made wines with individuality, balance and structure which reflect the Hunter terroir. The 2005 Reserve Shiraz (94 points Halliday) is a potent and powerful wine with ripe blackberry fruit and great complexity, it will be long lived. Two cases will be one lucky bidders!

The lovely Miss Penelope

This black and white and gorgeous "Miss Penelope Bag" has been donated to Interplast especially for the Black and White Ball. Popular all over the world Catherine Manuell Design is a favourite of the famous, the hard working and the traveller, lovers of art and in fact everyone who appreciates "The art of going places."

"Boy and his father" Rosie Gordon

Byron Bay artist Rosie Gordon uses charcoal to create photo-realistic portraits. This piece donated to Interplast entitled "Boy and his Father" depicts a young boy from PNG sitting in his fathers' lap while his father carves a spear. This powerful image was chosen for the Peoples Choice Award from 370 works at the Byron Arts Classic in January 2010.
